

NEWS

February 2025

During the February half term have transformed, tidied and organised the garden

. There are a few little things to still be added and also a few things which we need the children to help us with when we return after half term to complete the garden makeover.

